

Tess Gross

Tess Gross is Executive Assistant to the Director. She originally trained as a secondary school teacher in History and English but has spent most of her working career in tertiary institutions including both Melbourne and Monash Universities.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) with a major in History and a Graduate Diploma in Education and has nearly two decades of administrative and teaching experience.

Tess has a connection to India stemming from a childhood in Fiji where Fiji-Indians were the backbone of the sugar industry, and expat workers like her father spoke Hindustani in the normal course of their day.
