

Marianna Sarris

Marianna Sarris is Projects and Partnerships Adviser at the Australia India Institute since August 2013.

Marianna has a BA in International Business from the American University in Paris. She has over 20 years experience in bilateral/international relations and trade, and was previously a Trade Commissioner for Canada at the Canadian Embassy in Athens, Greece for over 16 years.

Marianna has lived or worked in Canada, Italy, Lebanon, Greece and France, relocating to Australia and Melbourne in 2007. In the past 6+ years she has had the privilege of visiting India three times. Marianna also serves on the Victorian Committee of the Australia India Business Council and is the Coordinator of the Australia India Leadership Dialogue.